

LAUNCH YOUR CAREER IN CULINARY ARTS

Towards Employment and community partners are recruiting for our Culinary Training program.

What is it?

- Career readiness training at Towards Employment
- Culinary Arts training at NewBridge, covering culinary fundamentals such as terminology, food safety, culinary math, and kitchen professionalism
- Work experience opportunity after training

Successful graduates:

- Become ServSafe certified
- Will have a 5 week paid work experience after completion of culinary arts training
- Prepare for the interviews and ensure success on the job with skill development classes

I'm interested! What's next?

- Call 216-696-5750 to register for an information session. Mention our Culinary Arts program
- Meet with a Towards Employment case manager for an assessment
- Schedule job readiness training for the May 14th start date
- Attend six week culinary training at NewBridge beginning May 29th

Criteria:

- Must complete job readiness training at Towards Employment
- High school diploma/GED OR passing WorkKeys score
- Commit to attend a 2-week career readiness training
- Open to those who are unemployed, underemployed, or looking for a career change

